We've been thinking about you!

St. Aloysius Parish is offering several Q&A sessions about the Catholic faith for all people from all backgrounds.
We'll answer your questions when we can and will find answers together when we can't.

These sessions are a safe place to explore your spirituality with people who care. If you've been thinking about becoming a member of the Catholic Church, or if you're simply interested in learning more about Catholicism, we invite you to attend these Q&A sessions.

Then, in the fall, if you're interested in continuing this journey of faith, you'll be welcomed into the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) or another Sacramental Preparation program depending on your personal background, needs, and journey.

Our Q&A sessions begin on Wednesday, May 23rd at 6:00pm in the Parish Center Antonian Room.

If you have questions or would like the full schedule, please contact

JUSTICE PRAYER/REFLECTION

*In the end,
it is the reality
of personal relationships
that saves everything.*

Thomas Merton

Building a Sister Community in El Salvador

“Catholic communities of faith should measure their prayer, education, and action by how they serve the life, dignity, and rights of the human person at home and abroad. A parish’s ‘catholicity’ is illustrated in its willingness to go beyond its own boundaries to extend the Gospel, serve those in need, and work for global justice and peace.”

“Migrants and refugees are not pawns on the chessboard of humanity. They are children, women, and men who leave or are forced to leave their homes for various reasons, who share a legitimate desire for knowing and having, but above all for being more.”
