Reflection from El Salvador

During February and March, the 2019 Delegates will share reflections from their experience in El Salvador.

Discussion of Migration amidst a “Border Wall” Shutdown

One would think the stronger enforcement at the U.S. – Mexican border during the last few years would send a clear message to those thinking about crossing the border without proper documentation. Yet, for the hardworking men & women of El Salvador, the dream of providing a way out of the grinding poverty and pervasive gang threats is a more powerful incentive.

During my visit to villages of the Bajo Lempa area, I heard numerous men & women talk frankly of their desire to make the dangerous and expensive journey north. Is a beefed-up border wall the answer? How about spending a fraction of that amount on a “Marshall Plan” to provide grassroots job training opportunities to those in impoverished communities in Central America? Wouldn’t micro loans & seed money for the enterprising be a better investment than higher barriers & bigger detention centers?

~George Waldref

Fondo (Emergency Health Fund)

Julio and members of the Fondo Board THANK St. Aloysius Parishioners for the $3000 check for the Fondo, which serves sick members in and around Tierra Blanca, El Salvador.

Delegates also brought over-the-counter drugs (aspirin, etc.) to help fill the Clinic shelves.
