Reflections from those who come to pray
during the hours of Adoration at St. Aloysius.

So much noise everyday.
Phones ringing, texts, e-mails demanding responses, people face-to-face needing something from you. How can God hope to get through all the noise?
A few quiet moments caught here and there,
but your focus is still elsewhere.
Adoration is the antidote.
Real quiet time.
A time to review your cares with God,
but mostly to just listen.
Twenty minutes, more if life allows.
It is enough to change my trajectory for days afterwards. It keeps me sane and I hope, productive. It is my life line.

Reflections from the U.S./Mexico Border
A group of 7 parishioners spent a week (October 6-12) on the Border to better understand the realities of migration from Mexico into the United States. You are invited to hear their stories and experiences during the weeks ahead.

I was fortunate to be part of the first parish delegation to go to the Border. Our time was spent both in Arizona and in Mexico along the Border. We were able to meet with asylum seekers and those awaiting deportation or incarceration as well as with agents of the Border Patrol. We connected with Samaritans who put water and food out in the desert.

In Nogales, Mexico, we went to the Kino Initiative Comedor where migrants are fed. In Agua Prieta, we visited a women’s sewing co-op, a migrant carpentry workshop and a coffee co-op, all positioned to help those unable to cross. In Tucson, we visited the Colibri Center that works to identify the bodies of those found in the desert. Next we observed Operation Streamline, witnessing actual court proceedings that sentence those who have crossed illegally.

I found those seeking to come to the United States to be very much like me. Prior to going, I had somehow distanced myself by casting them as “other”. This experience has opened my eyes to how much we are all one: We, not Them, and how much Christ is in the midst of it all.

I came home not with answers as much as with questions stemming from my experiences and with a deep compassion for their struggles.

To whom do I look to overcome spiritual difficulties in my life?

Friendship Center
World Relief works with refugees in Spokane. As part of its mission, they have opened “Friendship Center” in their building at 1522 N. Washington. The Center is a space where refugees and volunteers can come together to share stories, learn a craft, work on English, etc. Bottom line: Develop friendships. The Center is open weekdays (not Thursday) from 10:00 to 3:00.

St. Aloysius has partnered with World Relief and currently has 10 volunteers for the Center, but we are seeking more helpers.

World Relief provides orientation/training for all volunteers. Volunteer hours are very flexible.

For more info and to volunteer, please contact Rita Waldref, 313-7003 or rwaldref@dioceseofspokane.org
