Reflection from El Salvador

Members of the 2020 Delegation to El Salvador will share their reflections/experiences in the weeks ahead.
George Waldref shares this week.

The transformative power of photos! During our visits to the Christian Base Communities or CBCs, I had the opportunity to take photos with an instant camera. The simple act of capturing a moment of joy and friendship was profound for me. Though my Spanish is very limited, the camera bridged that barrier and granted a trust and intimacy to each encounter. Most of these photos were gifts to children who didn’t have cellphones, thus unable to do “selfies” with friends.

On deeper reflection, I look to those youth of El Salvador as the fragile promise of these struggling communities. The CBCs have invested much in their young – music, dance, theater and education, to pass on cultural values and strengthen community ties. The years ahead will test their investment, Will they have stronger communities or more migration and fragmentation?
